REGISTRATION

Name(s): _____

_____

Friday, January 26

Shabbat dinner ($36/person)

_____ # attending

Saturday, January 27

Kiddush lunch and lecture

_____ # attending (no charge)

Evening lecture and dessert reception

_____ # attending ($10/person)

Sunday, January 28

Brunch and discussion

_____ # attending (no charge)

Total registration/donation amount: $ _____

TO REGISTER

Visit wjcenter.org/SIR or complete both sides of this form and return with payment by Friday,1/19:

Westchester Jewish Center
Palmer and Rockland Avenues
Mamaroneck, New York 10543

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Call WJC at 914-698-2960, or email:
adminasst@wjcenter.org

ABOUT RABBI MICHAEL PALEY

Rabbi Michael Paley is Scholar-in-Residence and Director of the Jewish Resource Center of the UJA-Federation of New York. He was professor of Jewish studies and Dean at Bard College, and Vice President of the Wexner Heritage Foundation where he remains a faculty member. For many years, Rabbi Paley served as the University Chaplain at Columbia University. Rabbi Paley was founding director of the Edgar M. Bronfman Youth Fellowships in Israel, and Jewish Chaplain at Dartmouth College. Newsweek has named him one of the 50 most influential rabbis in America. Rabbi Paley earned his bachelor's degree at Brandeis and graduate degrees in Jewish and Islamic philosophy and science at Temple University.

WESTCHESTER JEWISH CENTER

JEFFREY SEGELMAN Rabbi
ADIR YOLKUT Assistant Rabbi
ETHAN GOLDBERG Cantor
Palmer & Rockland Avenues, Mamaroneck
www.wjcenter.org
914-698-2960

The Center of Our Jewish Lives
WJC

Scholar-in-Residence Weekend with Rabbi Michael Paley

Enduring Jewish Values and Their Relevance to Everyday Life

JANUARY 26-28 2018

WESTCHESTER JEWISH CENTER

Enduring Jewish Values and Their Relevance To Everyday Life

A weekend full of learning, inspiration and community.

Friday, January 26, 2018

6:00pm	Friday Night Service
7:00pm	Community Dinner
8:00pm	Lecture/Discussion: Jews as Wanderers and Ambassadors: From Biblical Times to Today's Revival in Eastern Europe
9:00pm	Oneg Shabbat/Dessert

Saturday, January 27, 2018

9:30am	Morning Services/Sermon: Jews as Nonbelievers: One God or Less
12:15pm	Kiddush Lunch
12:45pm	Discussion: Jews as Intellectuals and Lifelong Learners: Commitment to the Life of the Mind
6:00pm	Private Dinner and Discussion with Rabbi Paley Ambassador's Circle only; Space limited
8:00pm	Lecture/Dessert Reception: Jews as Leaders: Past, Present & Future

Sunday, January 28, 2018

10:00am	Brunch/Discussion: Jews as Donors: Material Well-Being, Anti-Semitic Stereotyping & Tzedakah

Thoughts from Rabbi Michael Paley

"I TEACH WITH A SENSE OF HUMOR; WITHOUT HUMOR, PEOPLE GET BORED. NOBODY WANTS TO BE LECTURED TO. A TEACHER HAS TO ENGAGE THE STUDENTS."

"I SEEM TO BE ABLE TO LIVE IN DIFFERENT WORLDS. I FEEL COMFORTABLE IN RURAL NEW HAMPSHIRE, BUT I'M ALSO HAPPY TO WEAR A SUIT. I ENJOY CROSSING BOUNDARIES."

From "A Conversation with Michael Paley" written by William Novak.

DONATION INFORMATION

Name(s): _____

_____

Email: _____

Telephone: _____

Please support the WJC Scholar-in-Residence Program

The Scholar-in-Residence Program is solely supported by donations. Your contribution is vital to Adult Education at WJC. Thank you for your generous support.

DONATION LEVELS (Check One)

☐ Ambassador's Circle $540
Includes all events plus private dinner reception with Rabbi Paley, space limited

☐ Benefactor $360
Includes all events

☐ Patron $180
Includes all events except Shabbat dinner

☐ Sponsor $126

☐ Donor $72

☐ Other $ _____

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Contact the Adult Education Committee Co-Chairs: Karen Everett, karenhertzerverett@gmail.com and Myra Glajchen, mglajchen@gmail.com