Thursday, March 18, 2010 at 8:00pm
(following evening services at 7:30pm)

Every day people are trying to figure out how to network more effectively to increase the volume of introductions for new business opportunities. Regardless of your business or job demands, this presentation could be a game changer. Implementing highly effective networking strategies could be the key to your success in this difficult economy. Invest in an evening with David Volkman, noted financial planner and business planning strategist, and be prepared to learn exactly what to do to make your networking efforts more productive. Many people have benefited from hearing him speak because of the valuable information offered and his upbeat and inspiring attitude.

This single presentation could be the key to finding your next opportunities.

Who should attend: Anybody who wants to learn how to develop the right philosophy, attitude, strategy, implement tactics and tools, and create an action plan that will pull your efforts into a well designed marketing machine. This will be a night to remember.

We gain strength from the support and knowledge from our neighbors, friends, and congregants throughout the Sound Shore area.

This program is open to all. Free of charge.

The WJC Brotherhood has established the WJC Networking Group to promote networking, share ideas, circulate leads, provide encouragement, and support.
