Shiur Study Session with Rabbi Arnowitz Wednesday at 4:00pm

We often hear the word Teshuvah during the high holidays. Teshuvah literally means “return.” As we approach the high holidays after a long year, let us remember that we can return to ourselves each and every day—return to who we are, how it feels to be awake and present for our lives, and to who we want to be in the year ahead.

Blessings play an important role in our Jewish lives. Please visit the website and share a blessing you’ve recited or experienced today. It could be a formal Jewish blessing, a moment when you gave thanks in your own way for something you experienced or witnessed, or a time you reflected God’s blessing in the world for someone else, like an act of tzedakah or kindness. Sharing your picture or a picture of the blessing is optional. We hope you will submit a blessing everyday of the 100 Blessing Campaign, and we encourage you to submit a different blessing each day.

SOJAC MITZVAH CARD The Social Justice Action Committee offers opportunities for WJC families to carry out mitzvot within the WJC community, the broader Larchmont/Mamaroneck community, and throughout the world. Our work is multifaceted, as we assist those in need while simultaneously aiming to address broader, underlying causes of injustice in our society. This new year provides a new opportunity to take part. We are seeking to build a diverse and multi-generational coalition of WJC members interested in Tikun Olam (repairing the world). Please consider participating in our programs and events throughout the year. Signing up is an opportunity to show interest, not a commitment.

→ Visit wjcenter.org/MitzvahPledge2022 to sign up online.
